

2009 ACS National Student Writing Competition Finalists and Winners

Winner

Doninger v. Niehoff: An Example of Public Schools' Paternalism and the Off-Campus Restriction of Students' First Amendment Rights

- Nathan Fronk, Marquette University

Runners-Up

Standing in the Way of Cooperation: Citizen Standing and Compliance with International Environmental Agreements

- Neil Gromley, Harvard University

Imputing Sexual Intent to Minors: The Case for an Age-Based Exception

- Stephanie Holmes, University of Chicago

Other Finalists

Linking the Ethanol Boom to the Gulf State Fisheries Bust: Reinvigorating the Commerce Clause to Enable Gulf State Fishermen to Sue Midwest Corn Farmers

- Audrey Lin, Northwestern University

"Dangerous" Redefined: New Standards for Involuntary Commitment in Illinois

- Elizabeth McGuan, Northern Illinois University

Internet v. First Amendment: How to Keep the First Amendment From Abridging Free Speech

- Randy Tyler, University of Pennsylvania

Litigation-Fostered Bureaucratic Autonomy: Exploring the Institutional Roots of a Post-Chevron Moment in Administrative Law and Politics

- Daniel Walters, University of Wisconsin